

If a solicitor comes to my house, I can put a sign up saying I do not want them to bother me. Why can I not do the same with bothersome calls. Anybody who wants these calls can have them by not requesting the "do not call" list. If you like them so much have them all come to your house while you are eating dinner.